Honorable Leverett Saltonstall United States Senate Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Saltonstall:

Thank you for your letter of 8 October 1365 concerning As you know, submitted his application for consideration for employment with us. However, after a thorough review we were unable to locate a suitable position for and advised him on 18 May 1965 of this fact. We have kept his file in the active STAT category for consideration but no appropriate opening has yet been identified for him. In response to your inquiry, we are making a special check of outstanding requirements to determine whether there may now be a vacancy which would accommodate his employment. Our Director of Personnel has written directly to to advise him of this action and a copy of that letter is enclosed for your STAT in ormation. Your interest in writing to me in STAT behalf is appreciated and we shall advise you or the results or his application. Sincerely, Termont of F. Tillera
